Thursday, May 2. 1706.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 7.

Rome, April 17.

THE Difference between this Court and that of Vienna, on Occasion of the Refusal of the Administrators of the Church dell'Anima belonging to the German Nation, to lay before the Pope's Officers an Account of the Disposition of the Revenues of that Church, is amicably accomodated contrary to the Expectation of most Men; and 'tis reported the Emperor has written a very obliging Letter to the Pope, in which his Imperial Majesty declares he disapproves the Conduct of the foresaid Administrators; so that that Church will be open'd very suddenly, and visited as the national Churches belonging to the Spaniards and French have been.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 4.

Berne, April 24. The 21st of this Month, the Ratifications of the Treaty of Accommodation lately concluded between the Regents of this Canton of Berne and the titular Bishop of Basil residing at Porantru, were exchanged: That Prelate has since written a very respectful Letter to our said Regents. M. de la Chappelle being come hither from the Marquis de Puisieux Ambassador of France, made certain Proposals Yesterday to our Commissaries. 'Tis said he acquainted them, that the King of France has granted that the Command of the Companies of the Swiss Regiments of Bernois that is in France, shall for the future be given to none but Burghers of this City; and 'tis believ'd likewise, that his Majesty will take off the Stoppage of 3 Deniers per Livre, which is deducted out of the Pay of all his Troops for the Hospital of the Invalides, because the Swiss are not receiv'd into that Hospital.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 4.

Vienna, April 21. Prince Ragotski having consented to the revictualling of Trentschin and Leopoldstad, 8000 Crowns are already sent thither from hence to pay those 2 Garrisons in the first Place, and Provisions will be sent afterwards. The Emperor has consented on his Part, that the Troops of the Malecontents shall continue in all Places where they are at present; so that he has receded from his Demand that they should retire over to the other side of the Waag and of the Raab. We are in hopes that Prince Ragotski will likewise consent that we shall supply Buda, Gran, Camorra and Raab, with Ammunition and Provisions; in Expectation of such his Consent 10 Boats are already laden here with Ammunition and a like Number with Provisions, in order to their being sent down the Danube. Within a few Days several Danish Officers are arriv'd here from Transilvania, who report that the Troops of their Nation are preparing to return into Hungary; and that General Herbeville has remounted their Cavalry, with Horses taken from the Peasants of that Principality.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 8. &c.

Vienna, April 24. The 21st arriv'd an Express which was detach'd the 12th Instant from Hermanstad in Transilvania, with Advice that General Herbeville has fix'd his Head Quarters at Hungrad, that the Emperor's Army under his Command is in a very good Condition; but cannot yet begin its march back for Hungary, because the Mountains they are to pass are at present cover'd with Snow; that the Commissary General Brentano who went from hence some time ago, with a great Convoy of Money, Cloathing, and other Necessaries for our Troops in Transilvania, was happily arriv'd there: That General Herbeville having Intelligence Count Caroli with several thousand Hungarian Malecontents had pass'd the Mountain Arabanta, to make a new Irruption into Transilvania, and fall upon the auxiliary Danish Troops that were canton'd in the Neighbourhood of Weyssenbourg, detach'd Colonel Viard with some Troops to fight them; that accordingly Count Caroli was attack'd and driven back over the foresaid Mountain, with the Loss of 500 Men kill'd of his 2 best Regiments, and of 8 Standards, 1 pair of Kettledrums, 100 Horses, and a good deal of Baggage taken. The 22d Instant Count Guido Staremberg went from hence, to take upon him the Command of the Body of Troops General Palfi has with him in Hungary; he is also to visit all the fortified Places in that Kingdom that remain in the Possession of the Emperor, jointly with General Steinvillie who is gone with him for that Purpose. Count Wratislaw return'd hither last Night from Presburg, and 'tis said will be dispatch'd back agen to Morrow to Tirnau; and we are inform'd the Hungarian Malecontents do not only forbear all Acts of Hostility during the present Cessation of Arms, (which 'tis hop'd will be prolong'd for 2 Months,) but suffer the Imperial Officers and Soldiers to pass unmolested from one Place to another; only they will not allow them to carry about them Letters seal'd up. An Express is arriv'd at Court from Buda, with an Account that there is no Want of Provisions in that Place, it being supplied from the neighbouring Islands in the Danube. All is quiet on the Frontier of Turkey, and we have no cause to fear a Rupture with the Ottoman Porte. The Emperor has caus'd an Order to be publish'd, forbidding all Persons for the future to stile the Hungarians that are in Arms Rebels, and commanding to call them the Enemy's Troops, Prince Ragotski's Troops, Malecontents, or confederated Hungarians.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 8.

Dresden, May 1. Some Days ago a Libel was publish'd here, reflecting on the Proceedings of the Regency of this Electorate in causing General Patkul to be taken up and imprison'd; The Council have caus'd this Libel to be burnt by the Hands of the common Executioner; and the Guards of the Castle of Sonnestein in which General Patkul is kept Prisoner are doubled. The Reasons of his Imprisonment are trans-transmitted to such Courts as may think themselves any way concern'd therein. On Tuesday last 12 of our Soldiers who instead of doing their Duty in the Battle of Fraustad plunder'd our own Baggage, were hang'd, and 2 beheaded. Some more Criminals of that sort are under Confinement, and some others will be executed in Lusatia. General Reychenau riding to other Day from Muhlberg to Wittenberg, fell with his Horse into the Elbe and was drown'd.

Hildesheim, May 3. Last Sunday Brigadier Cadogan arriv'd at Hanover; and having first waited on the Elector's Dowager and afterwards din'd with the Envoy of England, he proceeded to Weyhausen to speak with the Elector. 'Tis talk'd at Hanover, that the said Brigadier has prevail'd with his Electoral Highness to order an Additional Number of Troops to march to serve under the Duke of Marlborough; 'tis certain at least, that to-morrow a Regiment of Hanoverian Horse is to pass in Review.

Plymouth Apr. 28. Yesterday came in her Majesty's Ships the Windsor and Tryton from the Eastward; this Day came in and sail'd Sir Stafford Fairborne in her Majesty's Ship the Eagle, with the Monmouth, Rumney, August, and Milford; and was joyn'd by the Tryton.

Portsmouth, April 29. Yesterday came in from the Downes the Royal Sovereign, Royal Katherine, Barflure, Assurance, and Nassaw, with several Tenders and Coasters under their Convoy.
